Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wow – don't miss this brilliant summary of the Gospel for this year –

It is only today that we embark on our journey through the gospel of Luke. Journey is a key theme in Luke's writings. He structures his gospel around Jesus' journey from Galilee to Jerusalem where the promise of salvation comes to fulfilment. His second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, is the story of the good news going from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth.

Along the way Luke puts special emphasis on Jesus' outreach to the poor and weak, on God's mercy and forgiveness, on the importance of prayer, on the work of the Spirit, and on women. He includes many parables found in no other gospel, such as the Good Samaritan and the (so-called) Prodigal Son. At the same time Luke uniquely presents a Jesus who is severely critical of the rich and the self-righteous and radically demanding of his disciples, especially with regard to detachment from worldly wealth.

Thus we will find Luke's Jesus a disconcerting fellow-traveller, offering comforting companionship on the one hand, and uncompromising challenge on the other. But we journey with him on the way of salvation.

Spiritual Context – Framing

On either side of the quote from Isaiah in today's gospel there are very symmetrical actions. Before reading, Jesus stands, is handed the scroll and then unrolls the scroll. On completion he rolls up the scroll, hands it back and then sits down. There is a balance to every action. This framing or bracketing technique is used throughout the gospel of Luke as a cue to the audience. Whenever this framing occurs, it means that there is a very important teaching or action that occurs within the frame. On this occasion, the frame surrounds Jesus declaring his intentions for his ministry.

Questions to Ponder...

- Q. In what ways can the mission Jesus claimed be seen as a mission for all Christians?
- Q. Who are the people in your community who are really trying to bring about this mission?
- Q. How do / can you contribute to this mission?
- Q. Why was it significant that Jesus returned to Nazareth to begin his ministry?
- Q. Why was the inclusion of 'set the downtrodden free' such an important addition to the Isaiah text?

- the hand
- the foot
- the mouth
- the ears
- the elbow
- the neck
- the womb

Q. The hardest task Jesus had was

Q. I feel God “has anointed me” to...

Farewell Brother Michael McManus On Saturday, 2nd February, after the 5.30pm Mass, we shall celebrate a Potluck Farewell Dinner for our dear Br Michael. The evening promises to include enlightened discussion regarding East Timor to where Br Michael is returning. All are welcome to join us.

Inspirational Quotes From Christian Meditation Network

The way of meditation is simple. It is the time to be with God. You are not asking, “What is happening now?” “Am I enjoying this?” “What am I getting out of this?” During this time of being, I leave myself, my thoughts and plans aside. You cannot say your mantra for three minutes and then stop to see what happened. You learn to say the sacred word from the beginning to the end, every day. Set the word free in your heart. Do not control it. Say the word, patiently, and be.

Pope Francis has declared 8th February to be the World Day of Prayer Reflection and Action against Human Trafficking for the Universal Church.

He chose this day because it is the feast day of St Josephine Bakhita, patron saint of Sudan and of Trafficked People.

St Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped as a child from Africa and sold into slavery in the Sudan and in Italy before being freed and becoming a Canossian Sister. We are all most heartily invited to attend the Vigil Mass to celebrate the Feast of St Josephine Bakhita and to mark the International Day of Prayer, Reflection and Action Against Human Trafficking. Mass will be celebrated:

Time: 7.30pm Date: Thursday 7th February 2019

Place: St Patrick’s Cathedral

Celebrant: Archbishop Peter A Comensoli

RSVP/Inquiries: justice@cam.org.au

Fr Gerry will be attending and will be leaving the Parish House at 6.45pm. If you would like to join him, please let him know.

Of course, this Planning Day is open to all interested parties, no matter whether you are a member or not. More information is on the noticeboard and our website.

Joan Chittister is an outspoken advocate of justice, peace and equality — especially for women world-wide — and has been one of our visionary spiritual voices for more than 30 years.

Here follows some of her quotes:

The genius of holy communication lies in listening to a problem before we decide to fix it without really understanding it. Then, as Scripture says, “the last evil is worse than the first.” Or as Louise von François writes, “We never listen when we are eager to speak.”

Everyone needs someone who cares enough to hear them through, to support them as they take their next moves through life.

Listening isn’t just about helping someone else. It is also about being willing to learn from someone else. As Plutarch says, “Know how to listen and you will profit even from those who talk badly.”

To be a good listener, it is necessary to ask the right questions. Then, of course, we must have the patience to permit the other person to answer them.

To feel unheard is one of life’s greatest deprivations. Which is why solitary confinement can be so painful, so inhumane. Only by stretching ourselves to speak the real truth can we ever really grow beyond ourselves.
