

Which are the most important commandments?

Whenever we show kindness, love and respect for others, we are loving God. Draw a picture of yourself doing something that shows love for God.

Which commandment is the most important?

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul and mind." This is the first and most important commandment.

The second is like it: "Love your neighbour as much as you love yourself."

Which are the most important commandments?

Whenever we show kindness, love and respect for others, we are loving God. Draw a picture of yourself doing something that shows love for God.

Which commandment is the most important?

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul and mind." This is the first and most important commandment.

The second is like it: "Love your neighbour as much as you love yourself."