

No prophets are liked by the people in their own town

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Gospel

Lk 4:20b-24, 28-30

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying:
 "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."
 And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?"
 He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Write a prayer to say sorry for the times when you have been angry and said or done things that have hurt others.
