Words from the desk of our PP...

Archdiocesan Synod / Parish Assembly: In October this year, there will be an Archdiocese of Melbourne Synod. This will be a Melbourne expression of the Australian Plenary Council held in 2021/2 and the world-wide Synod on being a Synodal Church held in 2023/4.

The three focus areas for the Synod will be: Young Discipleship; Missionary Leadership; Formation and Participation. These topics have arisen from consideration of the results of the two gatherings mentioned above. To me they are broad enough that they give us room to address issues relating to our parishes of Doncaster and Templestowe.

I would appreciate your thoughts – or the beginnings of your thoughts at least. They will help me have input for a meeting on 17th February. And they will help us carry on from a meeting on Friday, just gone. John Costa, Gerard O'Donnell, Peter Sheehan, Sauro Antonelli and I met to start the serious work of preparing for our own Assembly of both St Kevin's and St Greg's people with a main focus on discussing synodality and how we are living synodality in our parishes today.

In addition to 'synodality' and what it is, I am thinking that perhaps we could think a bit about the dreams we have for our parishes and take thinking further about which topics the Archdiocesan Synod will form as a part of this Assembly. We are currently thinking a May timeframe, but no firm date has been set.

On 17th February there is a gathering of priests to discuss the Archdiocesan Synod, which is why I would like some early thoughts on "being synodal" or on the Archdiocesan Synod topics: please send them to me Charles.balnaves@cam.org.au.

I have given you all I know about the topics for the Synod but here are a couple of explanatory thoughts around the bald topic statements:

- Young Discipleship – I expect this will be about how we might speak the Good News into the lives of young people in Melbourne, in 2026. It will I imagine also be about you and I needing to reach out to young people and invite them to come and know Jesus; and it would be about trusting young people to be intentional disciples and help us to be better disciples.
- Missionary Leadership – I expect this to be all about how we grow a culture, an active practice, that is welcoming and intentionally invites others who don't know Jesus, to come to find him through personal experience.
- Formation and Participation – I expect this will relate to faith formation and prayer in all its forms but especially about rendering the Mass, Sunday Mass especially, as a 'wow' moment every time.

Extreme Weather: Please be careful – the heat this Summer is extreme – and the lack of cloud and rain mean that even moderate days can have fierce sun. Please ensure you stay covered or inside, keep hydrated, and speak with your doctor about YOUR needs in hot weather.

School is back: Remember! Even after 9 am when the gates are closed there can still be children around: drive slowly, slowly, slowly, watching for children or adults and giving way even when and especially when they are behaving oddly. We will sometimes have School Masses mixed with the parish Mass: please be patient and courteous and respectful of Child Safe needs.

God bless, Fr Charles

St Kevins & St Gregory's Parish Seminars Lent 2026

Celebration of the Mass is our central action of worship wherein we seek a close communion with God and our community.

All are welcome to attend the two sessions which are to be held during Lent this year. Our Parish Pastoral Councils have invited Fr. Frank O'Loughlin, retired priest, author and theologian, to lead us in better understanding the structure and purpose of the Mass as the central act of faith in our Catholic tradition.

Session 1:
Exploring the fundamental shape of the Mass.
Sat Feb 21 10.00am to 1.00pm.

Session 2:
Gaining a richer understanding of the Mass.
Thu March 5, 7.00pm to 9.00pm.

Both sessions will be held in St Gregory the Great Church gathering space to ensure we have a relaxed space that is large enough for all of you to come.

Father Frank will provide a rich encounter with the Mass and put into context your important role within it. He is an engaging presenter, willing to discuss any questions you may have. His presentations and his answers arise from his experience as a priest, a renowned theologian, and an adult educator. He has researched and taught in the areas of fundamental theology, sacramental theology and liturgy in the Archdiocese of Melbourne for the last 50 years. In recent years he has published several books.

REFLECTIONS ON THE READINGS OF THE FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading	Second Reading
Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13 A reading from the prophet Zephaniah In your midst I will leave a humble and a lowly people. Dies iiae, dies illa... (The day of wrath, that dreadful day...). This fearsome medieval poem was once sung at funerals and Masses for the dead. The short prophesy of Zephaniah describes the terrible destruction of this "day of the anger of the Lord". God's judgement will make an end of evil, purge the nation and purify the people, leaving a small remnant of the faithful, "humble and lowly", who seek refuge in God. The prophet urges the people to avoid destruction by seeking the Lord in integrity and humility – be part of the humble and faithful remnant, he says. It is from this small group that God's reign will grow and flourish. Zephaniah presents a cosmic and apocalyptic vision within which we hear Jesus' revolutionary teaching of the beatitudes.	1 Corinthians 1:26-31 A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians God has chosen what is weak by human reckoning. For once, the second reading – normally independent of the other texts – takes up a theme in harmony with the gospel. The Christian community is meant to live by values opposite to those commonly accepted in society. In the Gospel, Jesus will advocate humility and turn people's expectations upside-down. Paul does the same thing here. We need to make space for God's grace in our lives – we do not achieve anything by our own efforts. Our only boast is the Lord and what God does in and for us. Christ is our wisdom, virtue, holiness and freedom! One should notice the draw the contrasts clearly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>◆ Wise/influential/noble – foolish</li><li>◆ Strong – weak</li><li>◆ Chosen – common/contemptible</li><li>◆ Everything – nothing. Taken from 'Break Open the Word'</li></ul>

Social Justice Action St Kevin's Parish, Templestowe

Edited Extracts from 2026 NATSICC Australia Day Statement

"Contemporary Australia is home to the world's oldest continuing cultures and to many generations who have come from across the world to make their lives here. It is a nation of many stories, languages, and traditions – a place that invites ongoing reflection about belonging, shared identity, and how ancient cultures are honoured alongside a diverse and changing population.

NATSICC (National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council) recognises and knows first-hand the persistent disparities experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples in areas such as health, education, housing, and life expectancy, and acknowledges that reconciliation remains unfinished work. At the same time, there are signs of hope.....

Today, Australians find themselves living in a time of heightened complexity. Global uncertainty, acts of violence both on our shores and in different parts of the world, and the growing pressures faced by families have shaped a national mood in which questions of belonging and identity are felt more acutely. In such times, NATSICC believes it is especially important to approach difficult conversations through a lens of faith and with care, compassion, and a commitment to listening - John Costa SJA
